Special to the News

FORT COLLINS — Scott Petersen of Aurora shot a 2-under-par 69 Sunday at Collindale Golf Course to win the Colorado Golf Association's 56th Stroke Play Championship.

Petersen, the 1991 stroke play champion, shot 11-under 273 over four rounds to win the tournament by six strokes over Jonathan Kaye of City Park Golf Course in Denver. Bobby Kalinowski of Durango, the first-round co-leader, closed with a 3-under 68 to finish alone in third at even-par 284.

Petersen started the day with a three-stroke advantage over Boulder's Mike Troyer, but added to his lead early with birdies on the first two holes. From there the 21-year old University of Colorado graduate played par golf to coast in for his second state stroke-play title.
